FOWLER TELLS CONVENTION OF PROGRESS OF DEPARTMENT IN LAST YEAR; KERR WELCOMES VETS

Opening Guns of Convention Fired This Morning at First Executive Session Of Veterans

An attack on the war record of Thomas P. Gore, former United States senator, and candidate for the democratic nomination this year, may enliven the state convention of the American Legion. It was rumored today that a resolution condemning the official life of the former senator during the World War may be introduced and if rejected by the resolutions committee, brought to the floor of the convention. The resolution, it was said, was being prepared by a member of the Oklahoma City delegation. The report was strengthened by the appearance last night of a poster showing Gore standing on a platform labeled "Sunshine Patriots" and shutting out the vision of the sinking Lusitania. The placard was labeled "Lest We Forget," and it was said it had been distributed by members of the Oklahoma City delegation.

Oklahoma is the leading legion state of the Southwest and is surpassed by no state in the accomplishments of the past year, Cody Fowler, state commander, asserted during the presentation of his report at the morning session. Last year Oklahoma was 26th in number of legionnaires; this year it is 12th, showing a gain of 2,000 members, Fowler said. There are at present more than 16,500 names on the state legion roster, the commander declared.

Fowler's declaration that Oklahoma had done more for the disabled war veteran than any other state in the country brought prolonged cheers from the delegates.

The address of Robert S. Kerr, commander of Norman Howard post of Ada, received a thundering ovation from the delegates to the Sixth annual Departmental Legion Convention. Kerr welcomed Oklahoma Legionnaires to Ada and as leader of the Ada veterans expressed the gratitude of the Ada post in the honor of entertaining state veterans.

The following committee chairmen were named for meetings at 2:30 this afternoon: Credentials, Harold Constant of Ada; Rules and Organization, Gies A. Kelley of Tahlequah; Resolutions, Clarence M. Mills of Oklahoma City; Legislation, Ray Evans of Shawnee; Americanization, H. B. Drake of Ponca City; Publicity and Legionnaire, George Davis.

The following program was followed out to recess at 7 o'clock today.

APPERSON BANKERS MISSING BANK CLOSED

Bank Department Notified and Examiner to Check Upon Condition

(By the Associated Press)
APPERSON, Okla., July 28.—Considerable excitement prevailed here today following the disappearance early this morning of Jack Webster, cashier and O. A. Clark, bookkeeper, of the Bank of Apperson and the posting of a notice on the door of the bank that it was in the hands of a receiver and closed. The town night watchman declared he saw the missing bankers emerge from the bank at dawn carrying a bundle. The watchman followed the couple to the Webster home, he said, but the men were not at the Webster house when a later attempt to find them was made. County officers are searching for the missing men but no charges have been preferred against them, according to the local justice of the peace. An audit will be made of the bank's books as soon as a bank examiner arrives.

Commission Notified.
OKLAHOMA CITY, July 28.—The bank commissioner's office was notified today that the Bank of Apperson, Oklahoma, had failed to open this morning and an attempt was made to communicate with a bank examiner in the vicinity with the purpose of having an examination made of the bank's books.

AUXILIARY MEET HEARD OF STEPS OF ADVANCEMENT

State President Reports on Progress Made During Fiscal Year

DELEGATES WELCOMED
Report of Committees Heard At Opening Session of Auxiliary

The annual convention of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Oklahoma, convened at the First Methodist church at 9 o'clock this morning, with Mrs. J. P. Barrett, Department President, presiding.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the Chaplain which was followed by America, sung by the audience, and salute to the flag.

The address of welcome by Mrs. Byron Norrell was very inspiring and heartily received by the visiting delegates.

Mrs. Sam. A. McKeel welcomed the visiting delegates on behalf of the Ada Unit. It was well received and very much appreciated.

Response by Mrs. S. J. Bradford of Bartlesville, was highly appreciated by the entire delegation. A very inspiring report was given by Mrs. J. P. Barrett, Department President, setting out the accomplishments of the Auxiliary for the year. She stressed the fact that this is the baby organization of its kind and that the greatest work is yet to be done; as years go on the needs of the ex-service men, or their orphans and families grow greater and our membership should grow in accordance with the demands. Mrs. Barrett, in thanking the different units for their hearty co-operation, especially thanked Mrs. Jennie Stewart, our former Department President, and National Vice-President at this time, for her helpful co-operation. Mrs. Barrett pledged her support to the new officers who will be elected for the ensuing year. The report was accepted.

Report Given
The report of the Rules committee was read, including several new rules in regard to the meetings of this convention.

Report of Mrs. Newcomb, Department Secretary, was given at this time, showing the vast amount of letters written by her during the year.

The report given by the treasurer showed the financial standing of the organization; that there are 3944 members.

CHICKASHA—Much fear for the safety of Corporal Jim Hatcher's forces at the approach of the zero hour for the drive on Ada. Lack of ammunition in storming the town is feared, while no one has been reported suffering from thirst.

Harris hotel reports that a dead battle has been found in the hallway, is officially denied while the G. H. Q. reports that 74 quarts of milk have been consumed by the occupation forces.

A shell-shocked Buddy was severely reproached for embracing a waitress and calling her "Nellie, my spouse." Investigation revealed that the reproached one had three sheets in the wind.

Laughing gas has been distributed at random to the occupation army. The liquid was last seen in a fruit jar going down. All reports indicate that the experiment is proving successful.

The victorious army from Tonkawa dedicated their arrival at the Fortress Ada by the coronation of the "Queen of the Counter," but the ceremonies were halted when an enemy belloved for soup.

GREW TAKES ACTION IN IMBRIE ASSASSINATION

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 28.—Acting Secretary Grew of the state department announced today the dispatch of "vicious representations" to Teheran as a result of the assault upon Mrs. Katherine Imbrie, widow of Vice-Consul Robert Imbrie, who was killed recently by a Persian mob.

The communication sent to Minister Kornfeld protested against the situation in Persia which culminated in the unprovoked attack on Mrs. Imbrie. It was supplemental to the state department note dealing more generally with conditions existing in Persia and covering the vice-consul's death.

In announcing the forwarding of the two notes Mr. Grew said he had received advice from the minister announcing the delivery of the notes simultaneously to the Persian authorities.

Ada Kennel to Initiate Yellow Dog Victims Here

The Ada Kennel No. 13, Order of Yellow Dog, will give initiations this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon to all visiting legionnaires desiring confidence in the order, according to an announcement of members of the Pontotoc County Shrine Club, which is sponsoring the initiation.

The initiation is being offered under the auspices of the Norman Howard post, American Legion, is the second initiation ceremony offered since the local kennel came into prominence.

PAWHUSKA DELEGATES ARE GUESTS OF KIWANIS CLUB

A large delegation of Pawhuska Kiwanians were guests of the local club at the noonday luncheon of the Kiwanis Club today at the Episcopal Parish House. The program was in charge of the Shriners of the Club. The Shrine band rendered several peppy numbers after which Congressman Tom D. McKeown delivered a short address. He pointed out several worthy enterprises that should be sponsored by some civic service club among them road signs pointing the way to Ada, street markings and a white way for the principal streets. Congressman McKeown was followed by H. B. Wilenzick who made an interesting talk.

The Kiwanis Quartette, an organization from Pawhuska made a big hit with those present today as shown by the insistent call for encores. They gave every evidence of representing a live Kiwanis Club in a live town. They will likely be entertained again by the members of the club before the Legion Convention is over.

Attendance prize of today which was furnished by Stanfield's was won by Dr. M. M. Webster.

Guests other than the delegation from Pawhuska were Tom Grant, Hon. Tom D. McKeown, H. B. Wilenzick and Dr. W. B. Huckabee of Wilson, Oklahoma.

Chickasha Caravan Backing Hatcher for State Commander

Ada fell prostrate under the siege of the Chickasha caravan of delegates to the Oklahoma Departmental Legion convention and boosters of Jim Hatcher for state commander when the string of cars circled Main street and Broadway this morning and suspended traffic for a period of about a half hour.

The motor caravan of Chickasha legionnaires stopped in Platt Park at Sulphur over Sunday and went over the top at Ada at 10 o'clock this morning.

WRITING EXPERTS BROUGHT TO STAND IN CHICAGO CASE

Crowe Believes Testimony of Experts Will Cinch His Case

EXPERT IS CALLED
Defense Counsel Indicates "Friendly Judge" Testimony to be Resumed

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 28.—Beginning the second week of the trial of Richard Loeb and Nathan Leopold, Jr., for the kidnapping and slaying of 14-year-old Robert Franks, Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney calling hand writing experts in furtherance of what he termed "clinching his hanging case."

John Tyrell of Milwaukee, a writing expert with a record appearance in that capacity in more than 200 important trials, identified the original ransom letter which demanded $10,000 from Jacob Franks, father of the slain boy, and another letter left in a parlor car for Mr. Franks, as having been written on an Underwood portable typewriter.

A battered Underwood fished from a Jackson lagoon where according to their confessions, the two youths tossed it, previously had been introduced in evidence.

The train letter directing Mr. Franks to toss the money securely wrapped, from a moving train at a designated spot, as Mr. Tyrell explained to Chief Justice John R. Caverly in whose hands their fate finally will rest, Leopold and Loeb leaned forward to catch glimpses of the typewritten specimens which Tyrell passed to defense counsel and exchanged smiling confidences.

Mr. Tyrell went into detail explaining to the court the characteristics of the printing of the Underwood portable and was starting in with other writing specimens, when Attorney Darrow of the defense suggested that the facts along this line were not disputed and Judge Caverly said:

"All right. The defense has no objection so all this testimony may be put together in one exhibit."

The day gave another indication that the defense was not through with the accusation that Leopold declared he hoped to escape death by pleading guilty before a "friendly judge."

Police Sergeant J. J. Cortland who quoted this alleged remark, again took the stand to correct a detail of his testimony on which he made notes of his talk. Mr. Darrow took advantage of the opportunity to question him closely.

Early Day Tulsa Lawyer is Suicide; Shot Self on Brink of Grave

NOTE TO UNDERTAKER

TULSA, July 28.—Benjamin F. Rice, noted early day attorney of Tulsa, committed suicide sometime early this morning by firing a bullet into his right temple while standing beside his father's grave in Oaklawn cemetery.

The body was found shortly before 8 o'clock by E. S. Boswell, an employee of the cemetery. The body was doubled over the grave of the elder Rice.

Financial troubles are ascribed as the motive for Rice's suicide. He left a note saying he was "very tired."

Rice's father was once United States senator from Arkansas.

That he had made extensive plans for the deed was indicated by a note found under his body which evidently had been held in his left hand when he shot himself. A revolver was under his waist where the fingers of the right hand had released from their hold as death came.

The note was addressed to an undertaking company in care of an employee. It is as follows:

"Dear Sir:
"In my room at the Hotel Tulsa No. 710 you will find suitable clothes, also a letter to you with full instructions.

"Please ask Lorton and Jones to handle the case as gently as is consistent. They can get data necessary out of 'Who's Who.'"

"Thanking you,
B. F. RICE."

Lorton and Jones are newspaper publishers in Tulsa.

The undertaker went immediately to the hotel and in a suit case found an envelope with the words, "In the suit case." Inside was a letter again to the undertaker, addressed to "Mr. Ketchum" in which was a check for $50 drawn in his favor by Thomas D. Lyons, supreme court commissioner, Oklahoma City, and endorsed to the hotel. The suit case was full of clothes neatly packed. The note to the undertaker read:

"Dear Clarence:
"I am sorry to go out this way but it seems best."

"Will you please bury me in my lot in Oaklawn cemetery where my father is buried. Keep costs down as much as you can and bury me as soon as possible. I don't think it is necessary to send for my wife to come. Her address is care of Mrs. S. D. Martin, 81 Lakeside Drive, St. Joseph, Michigan.

"Very tired."

Mr. Rice had been in Tulsa several days coming here from New York where he had been living. He planned to re-establish his office in Tulsa and was on a visit to numerous old clients during his trip from New York. Mr. Rice was rated by the bar here as one of the leading attorneys of Oklahoma.

Fritz Blumenthal Greets Old Ada Friends at Meet

Fritz Blumenthal who was a member of the first recruiting squad sent to Ada at the outbreak of the war, is among the Legionnaires attending the convention.

Fritz and his party enlisted some 170 men in a short period of time and while here Fritz contributed many items of wisdom to the News and was a frequent visitor to the office. He is anxious to meet some of the men he enlisted here.

He has taken much interest in the affairs of the Legion and was the vice-commander after the organization was perfected in the state. He was also post adjutant at Oklahoma City for two terms in which capacity he made a record for securing new members. He is now a candidate for commander of the Fifth district.

For a number of years he has held the position of deputy court clerk of Oklahoma county.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

OH THAT MEN would praise the Lord for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men—Psalm 107:21.

WELCOME LEGIONNAIRES.

The city extends the glad hand to the host of Legionnaires and the Auxiliary. The Legion, an organization now young, will be in existence for three quarters of a century, as the U. C. V. and G. A. R. bid fair to be. Such an organization can do an incalculable amount of good by keeping the principles of good citizenship and American ideal before the present and future generations. Certainly no organization ever started out under better leadership and the leading men of the next half century will be found in the ranks of the young Americans who went to the front and saved the world from blight of German rule.

The German peril no longer menaces, but red radicalism has reared its reptilian head and the influence of the Legion has been hurled against it with telling effect. The nation has thousands of enemies at home and only eternal vigilance can prevent them from doing untold damage, even though they may never wreck the edifice of free government established by our fathers of the American Revolution. Here is where the Legion can and will be a bulwark to American liberties.

In this connection the Legion is following the example of the men who fought on both sides during the Civil War. They fought valiantly for their principles and then when peace came they did even greater service in the cause of peace. The world wants no more war and the influence of the men who went to the front in the late struggle can do more than anything else to prevent a recurrence of the tragedy, while at the same time upholding the honor of America.

Judge Caverly, before whom the Leopold and Franks hearing is being held, is in a position that no one could envy. On his decision rests the question of life or death for the youthful murderers. Such a responsibility is greater than the average man would care to assume. In a jury trial the responsibility is divided but in a case of this kind the power of life and death rests with one man. Judge Caverly has many things to consider. The two capital crimes of kidnapping for ransom and cold blooded murder call for stern punishment. Society looks to the courts for protection and it is up to the judge to say how the cause of justice can be best served. The youthfulness of the pair is the strongest point in their favor and that too, will be considered by the judge. Our guess is that he will finally give them a life sentence.

The Ardmoreite came out Sunday with a big special edition commemorating the thirty-sixth anniversary of the city's existence. This is a highly creditable piece of work and all the old timers are remembered. Most of them contributed a story or two concerning the early days. Ardmore has had many ups and downs but in spite of it all the city spreads over more of the map than it ever did and is still spreading. The News wishes her many happy returns.

Men who have passed through a common experience are thereby linked together by a tie that binds all the closer as the years pass. Such meetings as the Legion convention serve to cement friendship made on the battlefield and in camp and the members as they meet year after year will be bound still closer. New friendships also formed between men who served in different sections of the army and these, too, will grow stronger with the passing of time.

If either Gene Lorton or Hugh Scott is nominated for the senatorship it will not be with the vote or approval of Miss Alice Robertson, according to a dispatch from Okmulgee. The former congresswoman denounces both as traitors to the president and is also gunning for Scott because she says he has lied about her and fought her at every turn in the past. She is now out for revenge.

The Oklahoma City News is of the opinion that in spite of the slaughter of crows that has been going on in the state because of the bounty paid, there will be plenty left for the defeated candidates a week hence.

A number of races in the Texas primary will have to be run off by the two high men for each office. This double primary gives the majority a chance to be heard. Oklahoma would do well to adopt the plan.

The annual edition of "Who's Who in America," just off the press, lists 162 Oklahomans. Of this number Ada has just one—Congressman Tom D. McKeown.

Let a NEWS WANT AD get it for you.

THERE'S A REASON FOR HIS GOING UP SO FAST

THREE BISHOPS TO SPAK AT MEETING

Bible and Evangelistic Conference to Last Until August 8

MOUNT SEQUOYAH, Ark., July 28.—Three Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, are the platform speakers at the Bible and evangelistic conference, now in session here. It will continue until August 3.

Bishop Warren A. Candler, Bishop W. F. McMurry and Bishop S. R. Hay are the church leaders present.

Other noted speakers on the conference program are the Rev. Henry W. Bromley and Dr. Clovis G. Chappell, pastor of the First Methodist church, Memphis, Tenn. A quartette of young Mexican students from the Wesleyan Institute, the Southern Methodist school for Mexican boys at San Antonio, Texas, will feature the entertainment program.

The purpose of the conference, according to Dr. E. L. Russel, Nashville, Tenn., secretary of the bureau of evangelism of the church, is to stimulate interest in Bible study, and to increase an interest in all forms of evangelistic work.

Although the conference primarily for pastors and Sunday school workers in the Mount Sequoyah area, the meetings are open to all Methodists, west of the Mississippi river.

An attractive feature of the conference program according to Dr. Russel will be the presence of the Mexican quartette. These young men will sing the gospel songs both in Spanish and English.

Many pastors and Sunday school workers and many other Methodists of the Mount Sequoyah area are attending the conference. This area includes the following annual conferences of the M. E. church, South: Little Rock, North Arkansas, Memphis, East Oklahoma, West Oklahoma, Texas, North Texas, Central Texas, West Texas, Northwest Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Mississippi, Missouri, Southwest Missouri and St. Louis. In this area there are 930,772 church members; 93,545 Epworth Leaguers; 88,370 members of the Women's Missionary societies and 156,438 Sunday school pupils.

Mount Sequoyah assembly ground, which is located one mile from Fayetteville, contains 400 acres and has an elevation of 1,700 feet. The railroads sell summer tourists tickets to Mount Sequoyah for one and one-third fare round trip.

"THE STRANGER" THEME USED THREE TIMES

John Galsworthy liked the theme of "The First and Last" so well that he used it three separate times.

The author of the story, from which the screen play, "The Stranger," produced by Joseph Henabery for Paramount, was adopted, used the fundamental theme in an abbreviated short story published in the Cosmopolitan magazine, a three act stage play and a much longer story which fell just short of being a novel.

In adapting the Galsworthy story to the screen narrative story was followed in preference to the stage play, in which the character of The Stranger does not appear in person, but is only referred to by the other characters. Tully Marshall gives a great characterization in the title role of this production, which opens a two day's run at the McSwain Theatre today. He is featured with Betty Compson, Richard Dix and Lewis Stone.

Why Agricultural Prices Mount.

(Tulsa World)

The upward trend of agricultural prices brings no gladness to the hearts of the political apostles of discontent who have been hoping to ride into office through appeals to the cupidity and prejudice of the farmers of the nation. These boys explain the stiffening prices as being part of the diabolical plot of the money power to buy up the voters and elect Coolidge and Dawes! This particular gentry see nothing, know nothing and talk nothing but the devilment of the money power.

If it rains too much, the money power is at work. If it doesn't rain enough, the money power is playing its old tricks. If prices are high, the money power is behind the thing in those localities where folks sell commodities, and it's the money power, afraid of what the political reformers will do to them if they don't, in those localities where low prices are welcome.

You simply can't confuse your political reformer, your apostle of pessimism, who being a failure himself seeks success in politics by telling other folk just how bad off they are and how they can be benefited through simple legislative enactments.

But the cause of the stiffening of agricultural prices is available to everyone who wants to know the truth. Corn didn't start toward the ceiling until the crop report of the federal government forecasted a corn crop this year 531,000,000 bushels short of last year's crop!

ARDMORE TO CELEBRATE FOR PIONEER RESIDENTS

(By the Associated Press)

ARDMORE, Okla., July 28.—An animated picture of the "late '80's" when Ardmore emerged from the prairies of the Indian Territory, a shack town, to develop into one of the leading cities of the state, was revealed today in a pageant, chief feature of the city's celebration of its establishment. It was on July 28, 1887, that a group of settlers staked out the town and started throwing up the shacks that marked the first Ardmore.

Hundreds of the early residents of the city came back today and before them in the pageant rode other whom they knew when the city was a tottering infant municipality.

Yokes of oxen plodded along, dragging their loads of cotton; wide-brimmed hats shading sun-marked faces of range riders of other days, trotting by; pioneer women in voluminous skirts jolting along in buckboards; cow punchers with buckskin ponies; blanketed Chickasaws, some in war paint, others in the garb of peace; all were in the pageant that wound through the downtown section of Ardmore. Thousands of persons here for the one-day celebration, cheered the procession.

A barbecue was served the visitors at noon and tonight dancing and fireworks will close the event. Older members of the Chickasaw Indian nation met here today in connection with the celebration to form a pioneer's organization. It is expected that more than 10,000 visitors would be here.

Candidates For Departmental Commander

R. M. MOUNTCASTLE
of Fort Gibson

Immediately upon Mountcastle's return from France he organized a number of Legion Posts, and some of these Posts are among the most active. He was the first Post Commander of the Frank Gladd Post No. 20, of the American Legion at Fort Gibson, Oklahoma, and later served as County Commander, District Commander and a member of the Department, Executive Committee from the Second Congressional District.

One of the greatest tributes that could be paid to Comrade Mountcastle has been paid him by the patients of the Veterans Hospital No. 90, which is composed of patients from all portions of Oklahoma, when they indorsed him unanimously for Department Commander. The Frank Gladd Post is one of the small posts of the Legion. At this time it has ninety-five percent of the ex-service men who live in the town of Ft. Gibson as members.

J. F. (JIMMIE) HATCHER

W. A. Horton.

Al Horton, Tonkawa candidate for state commander of the American Legion, claims an enviable record as commander of the Tonkawa legionnaire.

At the outbreak of the war, Horton was a member of the legislature of South Carolina, having been a practicing attorney at Spartanburg prior to his election.

He attended officers training camp at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., and was commissioned a lieutenant. He held that commission for only a short time before being made a captain. Horton went overseas in May, 1919, and returned to the states in August, 1919.

He was named liaison officer to work with the Veterans Bureau with Forbes but resigned when Forbes' policies were not in accord with his belief as beneficial to the ex-service man.

Horton came to Tonkawa as professor of English in the Tonkawa schools but later accepted position as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

In 1923 Tonkawa did not have a legion post but today Ralph W. Brown post, 71, has a membership of 247 legionnaires.

Dr. C. A. Johnson

Wilson, Oklahoma, is loyally supporting the candidacy of "Doc" Johnson for commandery of the Oklahoma Department, American Legion.

Dr. Johnson was one of the first post organizers of the American Legion in Oklahoma, and was first post commander of Tom Worsham Post No. 231 at Wilson. Since his term expired as commander, he has been post service officer, and a member of the executive committee.

He is now Department Executive Committeeman from the Third District, and has not only efficiently performed the duties of that office, but has gone out of his district to organize new posts. Dr. Johnson has never missed an Oklahoma Department Convention, and has attended all national conventions from Kansas City to the present time, and is familiar with the State and National workings of the American Legion.

Jim Crowson

Jim Crowson is another candidate for state commander. He is from Atoka, is popular with the people of his home town and they are boosting him to the limit.

He is a strong Legion man and is always found fighting for the best in American ideals and principles. The News reporter was unable to locate him this afternoon and thus could not carry as long a story as desired.

His friends believe he will make a good race for leadership.

Among the Legionnaires

Rev. Chas. Malpass, Chaplain of the Argonne Post No. 4 of Enid, is in the city and will put on a picture show on the north side of the Convention Hall this evening at 8 o'clock. Several reels will be shown and he has a number of slides, showing the proper respect for the flag and other matters of interest in connection with the Stars and Stripes.

Rev. Malpass says that all "clergymen, teachers and others who have in their power the development of the spiritual and intellectual phases of the young should see these pictures. He says that a large picture has just been completed at Enid which will be put on the screen within a short time, showing many things in connection with the flag.

Clark Owsley.

Clark Owsley, brother of past National Commander, Alvin Owsley, is in the city, attending the convention. Owsley is now an enthusiastic Oklahoma man and is an attorney for the State Corporation Commission. He is a cousin of Rube Geers, well known newspaper man and now secretary of the Corporation Commission.

Fred Tarman.

Fred Tarman, editor of the Norman Transcript, is one of the Legion delegates. Tarman for many years has been prominent in Oklahoma journalism. He has held many desk jobs on the Daily Oklahoman and was for two years professor of journalism in the University of Oklahoma. He is a successful editor of a small city daily.

Prof. A. C. Montin is in the city to attend the Convention and also to make arrangements to move here. He is to be in charge of the instrumental music at the East Central State Teachers College another year. His family will arrive in a few days. Prof. Montin was for several years a member of Sousa's famous band and is said to be one of America's foremost musicians.

Mrs. A. D. Allen and children, 516 North Mississippi, left this morning for Oklahoma City and Enid where they will visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Kate Braly and friends, Misses Bill Shipley and Olive Bell of Oklahoma City are here to spend the week-end with Mrs. Lon Braly, mother of the first named.

Wright Armstrong of Brownwood, Texas, an old time friend of the Norrell brothers, was in the city today giving the Legion boys the glad hand and inviting them to attend the 90th division reunion at the Texas town which will be held soon. Armstrong is a rising young man of his community and an all round hustler. Brownwood always does things right and this convention will be a good one.

Dave Hybarger

Dave Hybarger, formerly of this county and now county commissioner of Grady County was in the city Sunday and Monday with the Chickasha boosters for Jim Hatcher. Dave has many friends who are always glad to see him return to this county.

Dave is considered a natural booster, and those who know him say that if Grady county keeps him as county commissioner another term or two he will put that county on the map as having the best roads in the state. He is a good roads enthusiast and a citizen who believes in progress and at the same time keeping within the law in expenditures.

"Get There Ell"

Eli L. Admire, Republican candidate for the nomination for Corporation Commissioner is in Ada today shaking hands with his many friends among the Legion boys. Eli Admire is also an ex-service man, having served both in Cuba and the Philippines during the Spanish American war. He is running strong and it looks very much like he was going to be nominated next week. He asks the support of his many friends and acquaintance.

OIL NEWS

Oil and gas development is more in evidence in this section than ever before. In every direction from Ada wells are drilling. Several already have found paying sands and others should go into the pay before many more days.

The bridge, which is under construction on the South Canadian river and ought to be ready for traffic by a short time after September 1, will connect the field this side of the river with those in Seminole and Hughes counties.

The natural gas field just north of Ada extends over an area which it will take years to drill out. The wells are long lived and the gas is the purest yet found in the state.

A new well has just been brought in north of the city good for 50 barrels a day. Twelve miles northwest there is a field in which the wells make about the same amount. Twenty miles southwest another field is making several hundred barrels a day. On the east and northeast there are the Steedman, Francis and Allen fields, all good producers.

M'ALESTER NEGRO CONFESSES MURDER

(By the Associated Press)

M'ALESTER, July 28.—Leroy Scott, confessed murderer of Frank Daniels, taxi driver, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Thompson at 11 o'clock today and upon entering a plea of guilty waived preliminary hearing. His case probably will be tried Saturday in district court. The defendant is a Creek freedman.

M'ALESTER, July 28.—Leroy Scott, a negro, alleged slayer of Frank Daniels, taxi driver, whose body was recovered Sunday from Gaines creek after his disappearance four days ago, has been lodged in the state penitentiary for safe keeping as mob violence was threatened in McAlester when Sheriff Will Anderson and his deputies arrived today from Muskogee with the prisoner.

Scott has made a complete confession, according to the officers. He even stopped, they said, at the scene of the murder at the Gaines creek crossing of the Jefferson Highway, 25 miles north of McAlester, and showed just how the act was performed. The negro had accosted Daniels at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday night in McAlester and engaged him for a drive to Crowder, 11 miles north of here. At that place he asked to be taken to the home of relatives he declared resided north of Gaines creek near the river crossing between Pittsburg and McIntosh counties. When they reached the bridge he told Daniels the house was back some distance and he would walk the rest of the way.

The negro dismounted and then told Daniels that he had a flat tire on one of his rear wheels and while the driver was examining the tire struck him three blows with a crank, according to the alleged confession given the authorities.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

TRUST IN THE LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths.—Prov. 3:5, 6.

The conduct of the specially packed galleries at the Democratic-national convention indicates that New York was anxious to have the convention held there in order to force the nomination of Smith by strong arm methods if other measures failed. From the first the galleries have impeded the business of the convention and so thoroughly disgusted the delegates that it is not likely that another will ever be held there.

A writer describing the customs of Abyssinia says that in ancient times the high priest, who claimed to be in close communication with the gods the people worshiped, notified the king when he considered he had lived long enough and the king, accepting this as the mandate of his deities meekly obeyed and shuffled off. If Americans could get rid of leaders in public affairs in a similar manner the tribe would soon become very small.

The census bureau estimates the cotton crop of the United States at slightly above 12,000,000 for the current year. However, it is a wild guess at this stage of the game for the crop is yet to be made and there is no way of estimating the calamities that may befall some sections nor what damage insects may do before picking time. The increase in acreage is estimated at 4.4 per cent or 1,702,000 acres.

A good example in making waste spots beautiful can be seen at Bud Ellison's place next door to the News office. Instead of rubbish and unsightly objects thrown around, Mr. and Mrs. Ellison have put out a flower garden which adds a great deal to the appearance of things in this vicinity. It is a timely suggestion to others who are interested in improving the appearance of their property.

The Manufacturers Record quotes facts and figures to show that business confidence throughout the South is firm and increasing, even though it is reported to be somewhat on the slump in the east. In time the South will come into her own and her unlimited resources will place her at the front of the procession.

Dr. Wellington Koo has been named as prime minister of the Pekin Chinese government. Koo was educated in European schools and has had much experience in dealing with foreign nations having been in the diplomatic service of his country for many years. He has undertaken a big job now and if he succeeds China will yet emerge from the anarchy which has threatened to engulf the nation.

Some political observers at the national convention have expressed the opinion that Bryan's speech sounded the death knell to Smith's candidacy. Bryan is the leader of the dry forces and this element is said to be in the majority. If Bryan cannot be elected himself he has more than once shown that he can at least say who shall not have the nomination.

Genuine friends do not promise a man the impossible. It is not an act of friendship to raise false hopes and in the end leave a man sorely disappointed, but somehow human nature is such that even the most extravagant promises are taken at face value by a large part of the race without regard to nationality or degree of civilization.

In the dark ages everything that could not be readily comprehended was considered a supernatural manifestation. It was only when mankind began to seek a true explanation and to carry on investigations that the race began to advance. Man was formerly a slave to his superstitions but the truth has set him free.

Senator Robinson recently knocked a man down following a dispute over a golf game. This leads the Okmulgee Democrat to wonder what he would do to a man who criticized his policies, in case he should be elected president.

A smooth tongue is a great asset for many men we have met and when such a tongue wags in a head that is full of crookedness it means a lot of trouble and losses for those who listen.

KANSAS CITY TO CLAIM SPEEDERS

Cars Lined up for Lengthy Race at Kansas City Now

KANSAS CITY, July 3.—With 16 automobile drivers entered in the 250 miles national championship classic here July 4, motor racing interest in America will focus on Kansas City. Virtually all of the famous drivers will be entered.

Indications are that the race will be the most exciting ever seen in competition between the Duesenberg Miller and Durant teams. Duesenberg surprised many motor fans in the racing world at Indianapolis this year when the car won the 500 mile race, although it failed to make a showing in the Altoona 250 mile race, June 14.

The world's speed record of 116 miles an hour is held by Harlan Fongler, youthful Kansas City driver, hung up at Los Angeles last February in dry, cool weather. Fongler's tires stood up well under the grind and he made the entire distance without a stop.

The average at Altoona June 14 was 114 miles an hour, although it is believed a wet track was partly responsible for the slower time.

The speedway here will have only the one motor race this year. The entry list, as it recently stood, follows:

When a man's heart grows stronger and a coward's beats more weakly the fate of three people hangs in the balance. Buried in a small cabin beneath an avalanche of rock and dirt with a flickering candle in the eating the amount of oxygen in the heavy air, are two men and one girl. When that candle goes out, so do the lives of those three. The man's heart never weakens. The coward cringes, perspiration running in streams down his distorted face as he stares at the weakening candle flame.

This is the tense "Hell's Hole" scene which is the climax of the William Fox feature of that name coming to the American theatre today for a one day run with Charles Jones as the star. Incidentally, it is only one of many tense scenes that make of "Hell's Hole" a thriller of the first magnitude, with romance softening the clash of men and the dash of action.

Ruth Clifford plays the feminine lead opposite Jones. Maurice B. Flynn handles the heavy role, and others in the cast include Kathleen Key, Hardy Kirland and Eugene Pallette.

Emmett J. Flynn wielded the megaphone for this special. He not only "stepped on the gas" and scored a winner for speed, but he kept one eye on beautiful scenic photographs. The story is an original by George Scarborough, adapted by Bernard McConnell.

TWO CARTER COUNTY BOYS IN DEATH ROW

ARDMORE.—Two Carter county boys who are in the death row in the death row in the state penitentiary at McAlester waiting for the day of their execution for the murder of W. M. Cox, a Hoxbar postmaster, have written H. E. L. McMillan, Ardmore policeman, expressing thanks for the efforts being made to save them.

Estell Perkins who was with George Mullens when he fired the shot that killed the aged man, writes that he is waiting and praying for a chance to make good. The boy is appreciative of what local attorneys are doing to save him. This is the first time he was ever in trouble, he writes, and if he is given another chance, he pledges his word to make good.

George Mullens, uneducated country lad, is suffering remorse for his crime. Though he cannot express himself clearly in writing one can find in the disconnected phrases indication of deep and serious thought.

Both boys place utmost confidence in the people of Ardmore. They feel that through them they will be saved and given another chance.

DEBATE CHALLENGE ISSUED TO WALTON

WEWOKA.—A challenge to meet him in a series of debates, has been issued by State Senator Joseph C. Looney of this city to J. C. Walton ousted governor.

The challenge followed an attack on Looney made by Walton in a political speech here June 28.

Looney proposed to Walton that they debate their respective records. One debate would be held in each county of Looney's senatorial district.

State Bankers in Official Ranks of Ardmore Factory

ARDMORE.—W. M. McConnell, president of the Paul Rubber company, who has just returned from Oklahoma City, announced this morning that J. P. Gibson, president of the State Bankers' association, has been elected a member of the advisory board of the company.

Mr. Gibson has also secured a substantial financial interest in the company after his investigation showed that the company has been successfully operated for four years, paying an eight per cent dividend for the first three years and 10 per cent in 1923.

Mr. Gibson is well known in banking circles through the state and is financially interested in several banks.

Mr. McConnell advises that it is the purpose of the Paul Rubber company to secure several of the leading business men of the state to act on the advisory board of the company and whose duties will be to look after and direct the activities of the operation of the Ardmore plant.

STATEMENT OF MRS. BRITT

My announcement having appeared in the regular column of the News, I will now make a statement which I believe is justly due the voters of Pontotoc County, in order that they may be better able to decide upon my fitness for the office of County Superintendent of Schools. I cannot see all the voters personally.

Two years ago I made the race for County Superintendent of Public Instruction of this county and was defeated by a few hundred votes. The splendid support I received at that time, the encouragement I have since received from my loyal supporters, together with the implicit faith that I have in my ability to be of real service to the schools—especially the rural schools—of Pontotoc County caused me to again enter the race.

I have lived in this section for more than thirty years and have lived in Ada for more than six years. I own my home, which is located at 1000 East Tenth street, just north of the College. Hence I am vitally interested in the upbuilding of Ada and the progress of Pontotoc county.

I was graduated from the East Central State Teachers College in 1921. It has been about thirty-two years since I taught my first school in what was then Indian Territory, about thirty-five miles southwest of Ada. Therefore, I feel that I am justified in soliciting the support of the voters of this county.

I was born, reared and educated in Texas. My last year's work in schools in that state was the completion of the Junior year in Kidd-Kay College at Sherman, Texas. I am a widow and the mother of five children, four of whom are living. Our baby was accidentally killed while out hunting two and one-half years ago. My oldest child, a son, lives in Texas, so that my immediate family in this state consists of my three daughters, my mother, Mrs. M. C. Click, who has always made her home with me. I have no other relatives in the county nor in Oklahoma.

As to my politics I am a staunch Democrat of the old Jeffersonian type. My father was a Confederate soldier and had full faith in the South and her lost cause. But after the civil war was over, no man could have stood by the Stars and Stripes more loyally than he did. In the beginning of the World War, my son was not old enough to register, but on May 23, 1918, he reached his twenty-first year and registered June 5. He started to Camp Pike August 28 where he remained until honorably discharged in February, 1919. In filling out his questionnaire, he was asked for his reasons for exemption. He promptly replied, "None; put me in A-1. I am ready for service."

The rest of the family did their bit too. In fact the patriotism of the family is above question. The reason I mention this is because I am persuaded that sincere devotion to one's flag and true Americanism is a very essential qualification for an aspirant to this most important office.

In answer to the most prevalent of all questions, "Which side are you on?" I will say that since I am a little peculiar about secret societies, I am not a member of either the Klan or the Anti-Klan, but am frank to say that I grant every free American citizen the same privilege that I take and that is to do exactly as he pleases about going into secret societies or staying out, and I do not feel it my duty to put up a fight about it. My sincere devotion to what is right and just would cause me to say, however; Beware of anything that would bind in any way or would cause you to cast a vote against your better judgment.

I am glad to know that every vote I receive on August 5 will be, as it were, a free offering, as I am backed by no faction or organization of any kind. I know, moreover, that I will receive a goodly share of the votes of the people of Pontotoc County, who are willing to investigate the life, character and qualifications of each candidate and vote without prejudice or bias, with the one big thing uppermost in their hearts and minds—the welfare of the children of Pontotoc County and especially the boys and girls in the rural schools.

I am speaking in all sincerity when I say that I would withdraw from the race if I thought my opponents were better qualified and would do more for the schools of the county than I. But since I know, as all will know who investigate will know, this is not the case, I am in the race to the finish.

Again I want to thank the ladies for their loyalty two years ago and also for the encouragement received from them since I entered the race this time. I would not ask your support merely because I am a woman but because of my qualifications and true worth. If elected I am making the promise to the women of the county; they will never have cause to regret their support and I will endeavor to prove to the people of Pontotoc County that women are in many instances as capable if not more capable than men. And since the candidates for all the other offices are men, why not put a woman into this office, as all realize how deeply interested every mother is in school affairs?

For the last four years I have been superintendent of the Oakman school, a little village school with four teachers. The record of progress this school has made is second to none in the county, of which I am justly proud. We lacked only a few points registering as a superior Model school when Mr. Herring first came out. So we easily qualified and we are still proud of the fact of being a Model school without the incentive of the credit offered.

When I think of the splendid work done by the students of the Oakman High school, both in our own school and in the East Central State Teachers College where they finish their high school work and do their college work am thrilled with pleasure. One will get a life diploma at the close of the summer term and one at the close of the fall term. Four have a year of college work and four will graduate from the high school department this summer. There is still a good working high school at Oakman after the loss of these boys and girls. We now have eleven accredited units.

Since I have spent practically my whole life in the school room, either as student or teacher, I feel that few know the needs or understand better how to meet the conditions as they now exist than I.

I want to assure the people of Pontotoc County of my sincere devotion to the cause of education, especially to the improvement of the rural schools. Therefore I beg the voters of the county to consider my candidacy in all fairness. And if after careful consideration and investigation, you decide that I am fully qualified and have the energy and ability to meet efficiently the demands of this office, your vote and influence will be much appreciated.

I will be untiring in my efforts to secure the best of everything for the children of Pontotoc County and will have my same old slogan—Place an affiliated school in reach. Vote for the good of the boys and girls.

Yours for better schools,
MRS. PARRIE BRITT,
Candidate for County Superintendent of Schools.

Notre Dame Retains Rockne As Coach for Ten Years More

CHICAGO, July 28.—When Knute K. Rockne entered the University of Notre Dame 15 years ago as a poor working student, doing all kinds of odd jobs to pay for his tuition and board, he little dreamed that he would step into a position that was to pay him $100,000 in ten years as coach of that famous eleven. Rockne is to do just that, when his new contract becomes effective in 1925.

Rockne, by signing a contract to remain at Notre Dame for the next ten years at an annual salary reported to be $10,000 a year, becomes one of the highest paid teachers of football in America. Of the terms of his salary, Rockne himself has nothing to say, but those close to him declare he was offered $10,000 last year to become head football coach at the University of Iowa, succeeding Howard Jones and that Notre Dame would not part with him.

From a "handy" boy, determined to obtain an education, Rockne's career is a vivid story of a plucky fight against odds. The man who today is acknowledged as one of the foremost coaches in the country did not even know the principles of football when he entered Notre Dame in 1909. But under the direction of Jesse Harper, the Notre Dame coach, he began to learn quickly. He did what he was told. He practiced and trained hard and within three years was elected captain of the team and was hailed throughout the country as one of the greatest exponents of the forward pass ever developed.

When Rockne enrolled at Notre Dame he was without funds and no work was too menial for him to earn a few dollars. Gradually he became so proficient in chemistry that during his last year in school he acted as an assistant professor. It was in this same year that his name became famous in football, when Notre Dame met the Army for the first time and triumphed, 35 to 13. It was Rockne, on the heels of Gus Dorris, that swept the cadets off their feet.

After graduation, Coach Harper asked to retain Rockne as a football assistant. The dean of chemistry department made a similar request. Rockne was wanted in two places. The officials arranged his work so that he could work both jobs. A year later Harper retired to his western ranch and Rockne stepped into his shoes, holding the position as director of athletics, head football coach and track coach, ever since.

Notre Dame's rise to athletic power under Rockne's direction has been swift. The football eleven has always been contenders for national honors. Rockne, a national figure in American athletics, is of the "new school" football. His system has brought about many innovations, such as the shift plays. These are designed to conceal the point of attack and to add force to the thrust. Weight is in variably sacrificed for speed. Rockne refers to Notre Dame as "My school" and declares he never speed and clean up interference has made Notre Dame teams famous. will leave, as long as they wish to retain him.

MIX A CHAMPION IN "THE HEART BUSTER"

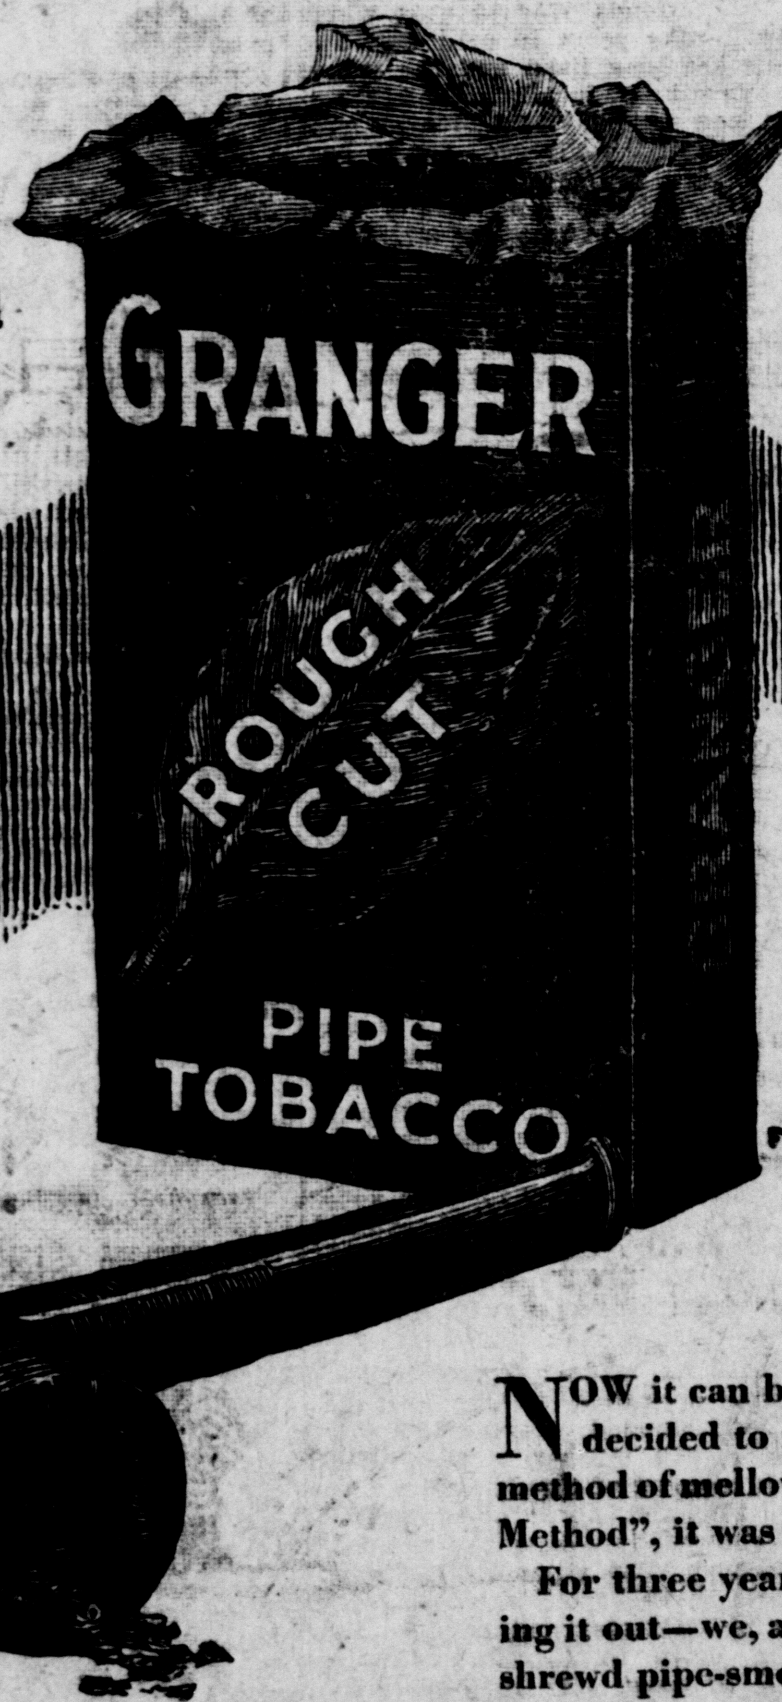

Tom Mix of the American Theatre today for a two day run, in a new William Fox western production, "The Heart Buster." This picture is the "fiftieth" in which Mr. Fox has featured Tom, and although the title sounds mushy, you will find that the western star does not have to doff his spurs and chaps and become a gay Lothario to break the hearts of the girls.

In fact the hero has to throw caution to the winds and kidnap the Justice of the Peace and minister in order to prevent the girl he loves from marrying the villain. But the girls will sigh when Tom gets into action and finally lands in jail to be rescued by his wonderful little horse, Tony.

Despite the fact that it is Tom's fiftieth, it is no fifty-fifty picture, but a real 100 per cent, sure-fire Mix knockout. One of the kind that has made Mix the most popular western star of the silver sheet.

An old tobacco secret re-discovered—

Wellman's famous old

1921—revived for Granger

1924—
a popular seller
in 32 states—a quarter-million smokers

A new richness from an old-time process

Made for pipes—cut for pipes—
-packed sensibly to save money

NOW it can be told. Three years ago we decided to revive a famous old secret method of mellowing tobacco—"Wellman's Method", it was called.

For three years we have been quietly trying it out—we, and about a quarter-million shrewd pipe-smokers who discovered it for themselves.

No, whirlwind campaigns, no "special offers", no extravagant claims; Granger Rough Cut has made good on its taste alone. There could be no better proof of its quality.

Now we are ready to "tell the world". An extraordinary pipe tobacco. "Wellman's Method"—now ours exclusively—not only mellows tobacco, but "rounds it out"—gives it a new taste, richer and milder.

There's no other method like it, nor any other tobacco like Granger.

And not only differently mellowed, but cut differently—cut for pipes. The Rough Cut burns more slowly, hence smokes cooler—and a pipe-load lasts nearly twice as long.

And finally—notice the package.

If Granger Rough Cut were packed in fancy lithographed tins, it would cost 15 cents.

But wrapped in smart heavy foil, you get this fuller, longer, cooler smoke at a third less cost. Foil instead of costly tin—hence the price.

Too good to be true? Ask any man who has tried it. Better yet—get out your pipe!

Granger Rough Cut

A Pointer on Tobacco—

The slower a tobacco burns, the cooler it smokes. Also the longer it lasts. This slow burning is due to the fact that Granger is "rough cut" to "cut" slow and cool—cut for pipes, not cigarettes. And Wellman's famous old secret method produces richer taste.

VETERANS BUREAU DIRECTOR APPEALS TO COUNTRY TO AID IN REHABILITATION MOVEMENT

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 23.—With a view to aiding the 2,712 former service men who will complete their vocational training this month and the 15,882 additional to be rehabilitated from now until the first of the new year, Frank T. Hines, director of the Veterans' Bureau, today appealed to employers throughout the country to give the veterans an opportunity to start life anew by providing them with positions for which they have been trained.

"These men and women served their country at a time of great need and they now ask only a fair chance to find employment along the lines in which they have received their training," said the director's appeal.

Director Hines expressed his appreciation of the assistance already rendered by the nation's employers in finding places for the disabled men and called attention to the fact that only 689 of the 67,000 men and women instructed by the bureau in its 14 districts were unemployed on June 1. One month later there remained to be completely rehabilitated along new lines 52,000 disabled veterans, who, as a result of wounds suffered in battle or sickness and injuries received during service in the world war, were rendered incapable of continuing their pre-war occupations following the armistice.

"The Veterans' Bureau can go only so far in the rehabilitation of these former service men," General Hines said. "It can take them and train them up to the point of employability and then it must call upon the various employing agencies of the country to carry on from that point."

Less than five percent of the veterans being rehabilitated have visible disabilities, he said, while 90 percent are able men. The apparent disabilities, however, consisted only of handicaps insofar as their pre-war occupations were concerned.

Of the veterans in training on July 1, professional instruction was being given 7,700; along commercial lines, 11,000; in the trades and industries, 26,000; and in agriculture, 7,300. The majority of these have been in training two years, some three years, and others as long as four years, being taught in the country's best universities, colleges, trade and commercial schools and in factories and workshops.

A recapitulation by districts of prospective rehabilitations from July 1 to January 1, 1925, follows:

District 1, comprising Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont, with headquarters at Boston: July, 368; August, 276; September, 330; October, 302; November, 188; and December, 403; total 1,867.

District 2, Connecticut, New York and New Jersey, headquarters New York City: July, 467; August, 446; September, 435; October, 279; November, 256, and December, 374; total 2,258.

District 3, Delaware and Pennsylvania, headquarters Philadelphia: July, 318; August, 296; September, 310; October, 216; November, 125; and December, 357; total 1,622.

BUSINESS MEN HELP TO ENTERTAIN VETS

The Oklahoma Departmental Legion convention looms up as the most successful convocation of war veterans ever held in Oklahoma.

The Norman Howard post, hosts, is pleased that its efforts should indicate success but to the merchants and business men of Ada the main goes the credit for making possible the apparent success of the convention for to them credit is due for the financial and moral support, which makes the convention possible.

The officials and members of the Norman Howard post feel pride in the citizenry of Ada and their loyalty in bringing the veterans of the state to Ada. Their contributions to the convention fund which will amply satisfy the needs of the convention were given in a spirit of free-heartedness seldom experienced in an affair of such nature.

Down through the ranks of business houses on Ada's Main street and other arteries of business, firms loosed the purse strings of their financial accumulations to contribute to the entertainment of state veterans.

The Norman Howard post feels that it is supported by the most loyal business fraternity in the world and are not forgetful of their vital assistance in the arrangements who will frolic here during the convention.

Though hosts to the state veterans three days of the convention, Ada vets will owe much of the success of the convention to the loyalty of its business men.

Cotton Consumption for one Decreases Exports Increase

The report of the census bureau shows that during the month of June, 350,277 bales of cotton were consumed by mills in the United States, which was falling off about 90,000 compared with the corresponding month of last year.

For the 11 months of the cotton year consumption was 3,341,440, which was approximately 900,000 bales below the corresponding period of the preceding year.

Exports for the month were 230,979 or about 15,000 in excess of June, 1923. For the 11 months exports totaled 5,560,467 or approximately 900,000 above the exports of the corresponding period of last year.

The amount on hand in the United States showed a marked decrease over the same date of 1923. There being approximately 1,800,000 bales on hand as compared with 2,550,000 a year before.

U. S. in Position to Push Teapot Cases as Special Counsels Report

The government is now in a position to act unreservedly against persons accused of fraud in the Teapot Dome oil scandal, Owen Roberts (left) and Allee Pomerene, special U. S. attorneys in the cases, having submitted their final report to President Coolidge. They are shown leaving the White House after having tendered the report. Indictments already have been returned against Harry F. Sinclair, Edward Doheny, and Albert Bacon Fall as a result of their investigation.

Wilson Invaders Powerless In Hands of Formby; Batting Spree Brings Easy Victory

Ada's independent squad triumphed in the first of a series of three games here before the delegates of the Oklahoma Departmental Legion convention Sunday afternoon when they smothered their rivals, Wilson, by a score of 16 to 0.

Effective and timely hitting with the airtight pitching of Formby accounted for the wide difference in score when the final counting was made.

While Wilson could account for but one error from the nine innings of losing tide of battle, their weakness lay in their inability to cope with Formby's delivery. E. Blackburn was the only Wilson player able to send the ball into outer lot while H. Blackburn's grounder between first base line bounded into an infield hit when Rutledge scooped it up but was unable to stop Blackburn on his throw to Formby, who covered the bag.

Ada sluggers literally "came to town" in the opener of the season. Every man on the Ada lineup is credited with one or more hits, while Kirkpatrick who returned to the fold yesterday gathered the lion's share with five hits out of six trips to the plate. Formby came in for a share of the slugging honors with a triple, double and single out of five visits. Page connected with two of the longest doubles to the right field, seen during the season. Both of Page's drives hit the right field wall, Page also landed a single to mount his average. L. Waner and R. Waner also accounted for triples.

Formby struck out five batters and held his foes powerless while Wilson sent Keller, the veterans, to battle the Ada sluggers. Keller was forced to retire in the seventh and was replaced by O. Blackburn, who lasted an inning before Fant, formerly of Duncan took the mound for the rest of the game. The three Wilson twirlers are considered the best in independent baseball in Oklahoma but their showing was ragged before the onslaught yesterday.

After a full of five innings, Ada started a rally that counted for five runs, another rally in the seventh brought seven more and the final batting inning brought three more.

First Inning
WILSON—Shannon struck out. Dobbins followed with three whiffs. Cheadle out, pitcher to first. No hits, no runs, no errors.

Sixth Inning
WILSON—Shannon out, short to first. Dobbins struck out. Cheadle out, pitcher to first. No hits, no runs, no errors.

ADA—Page doubled to the right field wall for the second long one to the fence. Lee singled. Page going to third. Rutledge grounded to second. Page scoring and all safe. Fain walked. Kignall bunted to pitcher who dropped it but caught Lee at home. Formby tripled scoring Rutledge, Fain and Wignall. Kirkpatrick singled, scoring Formby. R. Waner hit to a double play, second to first. Four hits, five runs, no errors.

Canadian Government Erecting—Farthest North Wireless Station

OTTAWA, July 28—Erection of the farthest north wireless station in the world, to be on Herschel Island, has been got under way this summer by the Canadian government.

The island, which is only 20 miles long and 5 miles wide, stands 500 feet in the Arctic Ocean at the mouth of the Mackenzie River, five miles east of the international boundary line.

Messages from Herschel Island are to be received in Dawson, Y. T., or Mayo, 150 miles east of Dawson, whence they are to be transmitted to Fort Smith or Fort Simpson, which are in the southern part of the Northwest Territories. Thence the messages would be relayed to Edmonton, which is connected by cable as of Canadian government wire less stations with Vancouver, B. C., and Halifax.

LEGION AUXILIARY IS HELPMATE OF VETERANS

The Ada Legion Auxiliary has been a valuable ally in the affairs of the Norman Howard post of Ada, which is scheduled to play host to state veterans here in the annual convention of the Oklahoma Department, American Legion on July 23.

The Auxiliary, which has been operating independently yet in harmony with the local post has mastered some very difficult handicaps before undertaking the entertainment of the state Auxiliary when it assembles here in connection with the Oklahoma Departmental convention.

The Auxiliary early in the year secured a sufficient number of homes for the visiting delegates and now has no serious obstacles to overcome before welcoming the auxiliary members to Ada.

According to the present plans of the Ada Auxiliary, members of the state auxiliary attending the convention here need not experience the rush and jam of hotel accommodation but will be conducted to private homes for their stay in Ada.

A round of social entertainment has been planned for those attending the convention after the business and routine matters of the auxiliary are disposed of.

A general resume of preparations for the Auxiliary by Mrs. McKeel would indicate that the Auxiliary convention will be given as much importance as the assembly of state veterans.

No Blue Laws

There are no blue laws in Ada. That old key generally used to open a convention to its guests is not necessary here for there are no locks and bars on Ada.

Sling your packs to the winds, lose your dog tags and forget all about serial numbers, revells, drinks, bunk fatigue and all that army routine for this is some leave center.

The sidewalks will not be pulled in regardless of how late you decide to linger on our Main street, homes are open to you—cars are at your services—the city is positively at your disposal with but one request—have a good time with Ada.

JAPANESE STEAMER IS TRAP FOR 150 ABOARD

(By the Associated Press)
TOKIO, July 28.—One hundred fifty-nine persons were drowned in the wreck of the Taurari Mura off Cape Noto, northeast of Hokkaido at 10:45 o'clock last night, says a dispatch to the Asahi, the leading newspaper of Tokio.

The vessel, nominally a freighter, was carrying 138 passengers besides her crew of 54. She was operated by the North Japan Steamship Co. between the island of Saghalien and Hokkaido, the northernmost of the main Japanese islands. She was bound for Otaru at the time of the wreck. She was a vessel of 1,240 tons. Eighteen passengers and five members of the crew survived, reaching Toyohara in life boats.

The cause of the wreck is obscure. The Asahi dispatch says it resulted from a collision with the Kamikuri Maru, but advices to the Nchi Nchi declared it was due to striking a rock. All on board the ship were Japanese.

SENATOR LODGE UNDER CARE OF PHYSICIANS

(By the Associated Press)
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 28.—Henry Cabot Lodge, senior senator from Massachusetts, is in a hospital here today putting forth all the strength of his 74 years to recover from the effects of an operation performed yesterday afternoon after a critical recurrence of a severe bladder trouble.

Dr. J. H. Cunningham, the surgeon, who is attending the senator said after his visit this morning that the condition of his patient was "excellent."

"Senator Lodge's temperature is normal and his pulse is 76 and for a man of his age his condition is excellent," the surgeon said.

The senator has been under a physician's care since his return to his Nahant home a month ago and suddenly became serious early yesterday morning. He was hurried to the hospital here and after consultation, his physician decided to operate. Mr. Lodge, in good spirits and in remarkable condition for his age, rallied quickly and regained consciousness last night. His continued recuperation depends entirely on his own strength, the physician said.
